

Employee Handbook

1. Purpose and Scope

This Employee Handbook ('Handbook') is the official policy guide for all full-time, part-time, and contract employees of NimbusLogix, Inc. ('NimbusLogix' or 'the Company'). It supersedes all prior handbooks, memos, and informal guidance. The Handbook applies to every employee regardless of role, location, or tenure.

Policies in this Handbook are designed to ensure consistent, fair, and legally compliant treatment of employees and to communicate the operational expectations of the Company. Where a local law is more protective than a policy stated here, the local law controls.

2. Equal Employment Opportunity and Anti-Harassment

NimbusLogix is an equal opportunity employer. Employment decisions — including hiring, promotion, compensation, and termination — are made without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Harassment of any kind is strictly prohibited. Employees who believe they have been subjected to or have witnessed harassment must report the concern immediately to their manager, the People Operations team, or via the anonymous EthicsPoint hotline at ethics.nimbuslogix.example. Retaliation against any employee for making a good-faith report is itself a violation of this policy and grounds for disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3. Working Hours and Time Off

Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM in the employee's local time zone, Monday through Friday. Engineering and Product teams operate on a flexible-hours model with a core collaboration window of 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM local time.

Full-time employees accrue 20 days of Paid Time Off (PTO) per calendar year, accruing at 1.67 days per month. Up to 5 unused PTO days may be carried over into the following calendar year; any balance above 5 days is forfeited on January 1.

The Company also observes 12 paid company holidays each year, published on the People Operations portal. Requests for time off must be submitted via the Workday PTO module at least 5 business days in advance for durations of 2 or more days.

4. Parental Leave

Birthing parents are entitled to 16 weeks of fully paid parental leave following the birth or adoption of a child. Non-birthing parents are entitled to 12 weeks of fully paid parental leave. Parental leave must be taken as a single continuous block and must commence within 6 months of the qualifying event.

5. Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest

Employees are expected to act with integrity, honesty, and respect in all business dealings. Conflicts of interest — including outside employment, financial interests in competitors or vendors, or personal relationships that may influence business judgment — must be disclosed in writing to the Chief People Officer using Form COI-01 before any related work is performed.

Gifts, hospitality, or entertainment offered by current or prospective vendors with a value in excess of USD 75 per occasion, or USD 250 cumulatively per vendor per year, must be declined or, where returning is impractical, surrendered to the Company.

6. Discipline and Termination

Failure to follow Company policies may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Disciplinary steps generally follow a progressive approach: (1) verbal coaching, (2) written warning, (3) final written warning with performance improvement plan, and (4) termination. The Company reserves the right to skip steps or terminate immediately for serious misconduct, including theft, harassment, or breach of the Information Security Policy.

Employees may resign at any time by providing at least 2 weeks' written notice to their manager. The Company may terminate employment at any time, with or without cause, in accordance with applicable law.
